

HP
90' x 200'

1559 - South Island Resource Management (SIRM), Shawnigan Lake, B.C.

Eco-system Conservation— Protection of the aquifer and preservation of a watershed area for present and future generations is a personal and corporate responsibility.

SIRM ordered the construction of this MegaDome for the containment and handling of contaminated soils in an environmentally responsible way.

